GWO

Basic Safety Training

“The members of GWO accept that the GWO standard fulfills the need for Basic Safety Training. All members of GWO accept training done by a training provider that can prove compliance with the "Criteria for a Training Provider" Standard, by holding a certificate for this, issued by a Certification body in accordance with "Criteria for Certification Body" standard. All members of GWO acknowledge that beside national legal requirements, companies can set extra requirements to those outlined in the GWO Basic Safety Training.”
